Field Audit & Neutral Refusals

Capture what actually happened this week before either person's memory of it hardens into a story. Fill this in together, or independently and compare. Don't fill it in about the other person.

Part A: Field Audit

A raw log kept for 5–7 days, before any interpretation gets added. One row per task noticed or done. Log what happened, not what should have happened.

Day	Task noticed or done	Who did it	Minutes (rough)	Asked for, or noticed and handled?
Mon	Groceries run	Maya	55	Noticed and handled
Mon	Dinner — pasta “night”	Jordan	40	Asked for
Tue	Called the dentist about Theo’s cleaning	Maya	15	Noticed and handled
Wed	Laundry, two loads	Both	90	Asked for
Thu	Took out trash (noticed it three times first)	Jordan	10	Noticed and handled
Fri	Paid bills; reconciled the joint account with the credit-card statement and flagged the duplicate charge from the streaming service	Maya	70	Noticed and handled
Sat	Car oil change	Jordan	120	Asked for
Sun	Meal prep for the week	Maya	80	Noticed and handled

This week's totals

Maya	265 minutes (55%), of which 220 noticed and handled without being asked
Jordan	215 minutes (45%), of which 10 noticed and handled without being asked
Workload balance score	0.90 Enter this as the workload balance input in CALC-01. It describes how the logged work was split this week — not either person.

Part B: Neutral refusals we want to try

Optional. Draft a refusal for a real situation using the three-part shape: acknowledge the request, state your capacity honestly, offer an alternative.

Type	Acknowledge	State capacity	Offer an alternative
Capacity check	I know bedtime is a lot to handle solo.	I'm running on empty tonight.	Can we split it — I do bath, you do the rest?
